OFFWELL: A team of ten Offwell School pupils, took part in an inter-school Handball Tournament at Honiton Leisure Centre recently.

A spokesperson for the school said: "There were some competitive games between the six schools; all played with a good spirit and the Offwell team were delighted to emerge as the overall winners. The school regularly takes part in collaborative sport events in Honiton, organised by Honiton Learning Community."

Another recent event was a local school's year three and four cross country race, with the group making it through to the East Devon finals which will be held at Blicton in November.
